

Bank account set up to help the family of a child with cancer

Hunter

A bank account has been established to receive donations to help Erinne and Dan Steinmetz of Selah, Wash. with medical expenses for Hunter Steinmetz, their two-year old son who is battling cancer. The Steinmetz family members are friends of Ben Tabayoyon of the Fire Protection Systems Maintenance group with Fluor Hanford. For those who wish to donate money, the account name is "Friends of Erinne and Dan," and the account number is 7328-1040 at the Bank of America, 220 S. Toppenish Ave., Toppenish, Wash.
